

August is Eastern Star Patient Comfort Program Month

The Eastern Star Patient Comfort Program is to support the creation of comfort items to be distributed through charitable organizations serving patients in need. They are used for people who have ports for medical reasons and fit between the seat belt of the car and the port area to protect their chest and port from seat belt friction.

PortPals, one of our comfort items, in use by friends undergoing cancer treatments!